BC PARKS: PARTY SIZE DEFINITION TABLES

Camping Party:

1-4 persons 16 years of age or older. A camping party can have one vehicle and trailer. Either one (but not both) may be an RV. Max party size is 8 persons (children under the age of 16 included).

Second Vehicle on-site:

A camping party may have a second vehicle (non-RV) on-site for an additional nightly charge of half its camping fee. A towed vehicle and / or boat are not considered a second vehicle.

Camp Site Maximum:

1 party per site, unless otherwise authorized by a park facility operator.

To determine Party size:

1. How many persons in the group 16 years or older?
2. How many persons in the group 15 years or younger?
3. Compare these numbers on table "A". This gives you the number of parties based on the number of persons.
4. Compare the number of parties from Table "A" with vehicle info. on table "B". This will give you the number of fees to charge.
